APRIL 15th, 1756. [Numb. 1138.]

The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

from the ANTIGUA GAZETTE, or PUBLIC ADVERTISER.

BARBADOS, February 14. 1756.

ON Sunday the 8th inſtant, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock in the evening, a fire broke out in a ſtore belonging to Joſeph Blackman, Eſq; near the middle of Bridge Town, wherein was a large quantity of cotton, landed by proper orders, from a French ſhip brought hither, and put under that gentleman's care, 'till further orders ſhould be had concerning the ſhip and cargo. The fire ſoon encreaſed, burnt that ſtore, and next ſeized the houſe of Mr. Samuel Nuſum, adjoining thereto; from thence the flames caught the oppoſite and adjacent houſes of Meſſrs. Haggatt, Lamply, Walker, and Codrington Carrington, Eſq; and afterwards took its courſe Weſtward to James's fort, which being conſumed, the fire ſtill encreaſing, burnt the houſes down in Crown Alley, up to Cheapſide, its progreſs was then Eaſtward, burning and raging in a moſt dreadful manner on the South of Broad ſtreet, towards the high houſe called the coffee houſe, which being ſeized, the flames then communicated their deſtructive influence to the houſe of Mr. Blackman, and that of Richard Huſbands, Eſq; the ſecretary, where the public records were kept. then the houſe and ſtores of general Barwick, Meſſrs. Lary, Bluck, and ſome other adjoining houſes, which put the whole town in danger of being conſumed to aſhes.

It is computed that about 100 houſes have been burnt, and 'tis ſaid that it was the richeſt part of the town, we have ſince then had frequent alarms, nor are the people out of doubt that it originally aroſe from the contrivance of ſome of the French brought in here, one of the French ſhips having ſome ſhort time before been burnt in the bay.

It is however a happy circumſtance that the public records were carried away during this dreadful calamity and the ſecretary has ſince been heard to ſay, that there is no embezzlement or loſs of any of them as he can yet diſcover.

Antigua, Feb. 28 By a veſſel arrived at St Euſtatia from Genoa in three weeks, we hear that commodore Edgcumb has taken 27 ſail of French Turky men, and ſent them into Gibraltar. Three large French men of war were off the iſland of Corſica, in order to intercept the cruizers of commodore Edgcumb's ſquadron.

We hear alſo from undoubted authority, that 60 pieces of cannon were lately brought from Old France to Martinico, which are deſigned to fortify St Lucia.

The French are greatly diſtreſs'd at Martinico, for want of proviſions, and beef is at 6 l. per barrel.

Antigua, March 16. Laſt week his majeſty's ſhip the Wincheſter, Capt. Le Cras, ſent into St. John's harbour, l'Aimable Catherine, Monſieur Le Combe commander, a large Martinico ſhip, richly laden.

Antigua, March 20. We are credibly informed, that 4 veſſels have lately arrived at Martinico, and 1 at Guardaloup, from Old-France: They have been out only 40 days (including this), and when they ſail'd war was not declar'd; but the greateſt preparations imaginable were making both in England and France.

LONDON, December 2.

PRIVATE letters from Paris ſay, that a deputation from the body of merchants have waited on the king, and humbly repreſented to him the great loſſes they have ſuſtained, praying immediate relief and protection: and that his moſt chriſtian majeſty's anſwer was, that they might make themſelves eaſy, as he was concerting meaſures to procure them full ſatisfaction for all their loſſes and damage.

A veſſel, ſuppoſed from Carolina, is loſt at St. Valory's, and all the crew drowned.

London, Dec 4. We hear that orders will ſhortly be iſſued from the lords of the admiralty to raiſe 2000 more ſeamen

And that 10 new regiments of foot are ordered to be forthwith raiſed.

Dec. 6. We hear that the army for the year 1756, including guards and gariſons, will be 34,000 effective men.

Dec. 9. The 20 gun ſhip chaſed into Plymouth by the French, proves to be the Gibraltar, which had been ſent to peep into the harbour o Breſt; but as ſome of their frigates then lay in the road, two of them were ſent after her, and it was with great difficulty ſhe got clear.

Dec. 18. We hear that a perſon of diſtinction is appointed to go in a public character to Poland, upon ſome matters of importance at this juncture.

This day his majeſty's proclamation was iſſued, for a general and public faſt to be obſerved throughout that part of Great Britain called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick upon Tweed, on friday the 12th of February next. The preamble to which is as follows:

"Whereas the manifold ſins and wickedneſs of theſe kingdoms have moſt juſtly deſerved heavy and ſevere puniſhments from the hand of heaven; and the Almighty, out of his great mercy, hath not only been our defence in times of danger, but hath protected and preſerved us from imminent deſtruction; eſpecially at this time, when ſome neighbouring countries in alliance and friendſhip with us, have been viſited with a moſt dreadful and extenſive Earthquake, which hath alſo, in ſome degree, been felt in ſeveral parts of our dominions: And whereas the preſent ſituation of public affairs (as to the iſſue of them) is of the higheſt importance to the peace and ſafety of theſe kingdoms, to our commerce and liberties, and above all to the moſt valuable bleſſing of the Proteſtant religion: We, &c. have reſolved, that a general and public Faſt be obſerved, that both We and our people may humble ourſelves before Almighty God, and in a moſt devout and ſolemn manner ſend up our prayers and ſupplications to the Divine Majeſty, to avert all thoſe judgments which we moſt juſtly have deſerved, to continue his mercies, and to perpetuate the enjoyment of the Proteſtant religion among us, and ſafety and proſperity to our kingdoms and dominions, and to implore his protection and bleſſing upon our fleets and armies, &c."

A Sweeſh ſhip with cannon for France is brought into the Downs by the Stirling caſtle man of war.

Dec. 20. We hear from Bourdeaux, that there are 7 large ſhips freighted in that port, with proviſions for the French ſettlements in North-America, and that they are reſolved to venture the run thither, whatever Engliſh men of war may be in the way.

Dec. 25. The right hon. the houſe of peers is adjourned to the 19th of January next. And the hon. the houſe of commons to the 13th.

Dec. 30. The only buildings left ſtanding in Liſbon, the beginning of this month, were the Engliſh and Dutch proteſtant chapels.

January 1. We hear that when the parliament meets, their firſt buſineſs of importance will be to vote 100,000 l. for the uſe of the New England army, whoſe conduct is ſo much approved of, that it is thought all fitting encouragement ſhould be given to theſe defenders of their country.

January 3. Four thouſand marines more are ordered to be raiſed immediately.

We hear that orders are given for a regiment of huſſars to be forthwith raiſed, conſiſting of 900 men.

We are informed, from good authority, that his Portugueze majeſty has declared, he will indemnify the the Britiſh merchants ſo far as lies in his power, for ſuch goods as were in the cuſtom-houſe, mint, &c. and for the loſſes ſuſtained by the Brazil trade on his account. And 'tis ſaid, his majeſty will alſo grant the ſaid merchants ſome freſh advantages in trade.

January 6. A definitive anſwer has been given to the court of France, in relation to the preſent armaments, which terminates not at all in their favour; and we are told from good authority, that the king of Pruſſia has given the moſt ſolemn aſſurances, that if the Ruſſian troops are hindered a paſſage into Germany, ſo neither will he permit any French troops to paſs towards thoſe quarters. It is expected that France will ſoon declare war, want of power has probably prevented it ſo long January 8 Yeſterday a cabinet council was held at St. James's, upon buſineſs of great importance; but which is kept an impenetrable ſecret.

Yeſterday 180 ſhip carpenters ſet out for Plymouth, to be employed in fitting out ſome more of war there.

January 10 Tueſday morning 7 meſſengers were diſpatched from the ſecretary of ſtate's office to foreign courts.

January 13 Orders are given by the court of France not to permit any Engliſh ſhips to come into the harbour of Dunkirk.

It is confidently ſaid, that war will be declared againſt France in a few days.

We hear a bill will be brought into parliament for conderming all the French ſhips that have been taken.

January 15 We hear that an expreſs, by way of Holland, has been lately received from France, the contents of which were ſo arrogant, abuſive, and infalſhood, that it was immediately returned without any conſideration thereon, and with this anſwer only, that its contents were ſuch as merited not the notice of the Britiſh nation.

January 17. We are informed from good authority that a treaty between our Court and that of Pruſſia is actually ſigned.

January 20. From what we can learn of the treaty juſt concluded between Great-Britain and Pruſſia, it appears that the former guaranties Silezia in a ſtronger manner than heretofore, and the latter guaranties Hanover: and, in conſequence of this laſt guaranty, both Ruſſian and French troops are to be kept out of the empire.

On Friday night laſt two expreſſes were diſpatched, one to Portſmouth for the fleet to repair to St Helen's, and the other to Plymouth to order all the ſhips in the ſound to get ready to put to ſea.

It has been confidently ſaid, that the French manifeſto was in the preſs, but as to the Pariſian accounts, it is right not to depend too much upon their veracity.

January 22. An expreſs from France has been received within theſe few days, and returned immediately.

It is whiſpered by ſome people who pretend to know what is in the wind, that there is to be ſomething like a private congreſs between the E——h and F——h m——ſ——s at B——e, and that the preſent diſputes will be adjuſted there under the mediation of the Solomon of the North.

January 24. It is reported that a viceroy will be ſent to North America.

The ſeveral 20 gun ſhips building for the government's ſervice, are to be ready to launch by the middle of next month.
